
COTA Short-Range Transit Plan Public Comment Meetings Scheduled for March 2 & 7

COLUMBUS—Two public comment meetings will take place regarding proposed updates to the Central Ohio Transit Authority's (COTA) Short-Range Transit Plan (SRTP).

Thursday, Mar. 2, 2017

William G. Porter Boardroom

33 N. High St., 43215

12 p.m.

Tuesday, Mar. 7, 2017

William G. Porter Boardroom

33 N. High St., 43215

6 p.m.

COTA updates the SRTP every two (2) years. These meetings are being held to present proposed plans for the implementation of future transit service and to highlight major capital initiatives planned to take place over the next five years. The SRTP also provides a plan for current and future uses of local, state and federal funds, including COTA's portion of the regional transportation improvement program (TIP).

The 2017 – 2021 SRTP update will incorporate public input in the development of future transit service plans, bus purchases, facility upgrades and maintenance, customer service improvements, and other initiatives.

For more information please visit cota.com or contact COTA at (614) 228-1776.

All interested people are encouraged to attend and participate. Public participation is solicited without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability or familial status.
