
Take COTA to the OSU vs. Penn State Game

Avoid the Hassles of Traffic and Parking

COLUMBUS, OH—The Central Ohio Transit Authority (COTA) is offering its popular express bus service to the Ohio State University home football game Sat., Oct. 28, when the Buckeyes host the Penn State Nittany Lions. Start time for the game is 3:30 p.m.

COTA has once again partnered with the Ohio Expo Center to provide convenient, low-cost Park & Ride service between the Expo Center at 17th Avenue and I-71, and 17th Avenue and Neil Avenue—approximately one block from Ohio Stadium. Parking for the Penn State game is north of 17th Avenue. Buses will arrive approximately every 5-10 minutes.

The cost to park at the Expo Center is $5. Roundtrip express fare to Ohio Stadium is $5.50 for adults and $2 for children. Children up to 12 years of age and under 48" ride free (limit three children per family).

COTA's Expo Center football service begins operation three hours before kick-off. Return service begins after the third quarter, and operates for two hours after the game ends. Drop-off location will be the same as the pick-up location.

Fans may take the football service bus without parking at the Expo Center for the same roundtrip fee of $5.50 per adult. Fans parking RV's at the Expo Center are also invited to take the express bus.

Fans can park for free and board express football service at COTA's Crosswoods Park & Ride, 7460 Huntington Park Dr., which will also operate three hours before and two hours after each home football game. Roundtrip express fare to Ohio Stadium is $5.50 per adult, and $2 per child.

Regular COTA service to the campus area is also available on a variety of lines. One-way fare is $2. Cash only accepted on the bus.
